IAS - 135/70

SUBJECT: Notes for Staff Study on Proposed [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has recently been freed from his regular duties to spend full time preparing IAS to handle the expected new materials. His participation will be particularly important to Director, IAS for this aspect of the trip and in discussions of other specialized topics such as measuring techniques. [REDACTED] should also gain useful background pertinent to his regular duties as an IAS branch chief by comparing notes with managers and analysts at the places visited.

3. Cover Plans:

Whatever [REDACTED] arranges. (I have an ID card as a member of the Secretary of Defense's staff, which might be helpful if it's still valid.)

4. Itinerary:

Will be provided by [REDACTED] Station contact [REDACTED] only. If I decided to come back to Washington on Monday 12 October instead of Sunday 11th so as to visit friends over weekend, should I put that in itinerary? Should I call it annual leave? [REDACTED] wants to take a week's annual leave 12-16 October. See him for details.
